VOL. VI. NO. 30. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4-5, 1900. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A special from Lexington to yesterday's Chronicle says: "E. D. Morgan is the latest New Yorker to enter racing. Mr. Morgan recently purchased or leased Hazlewood farm, two and one-half miles from Lexington, and he will begin to raise and breed both thoroughbreds and trotters on a large scale."

"Mr. Morgan has a number of excellent mares to start with. Last fall a number of sales took place here of thoroughbred mares. Among the men most busily engaged in picking up bargains was Dr. Norwood. He bought the cream of the matrons at a comparatively small price. After he had bought them it was said that he was acting for E. D. Morgan."

"When Don d'Oro was retired from racing last fall Morgan got him from August Belmont. Like Mr. Belmont, Mr. Morgan has always been a great admirer of the Rayon d'Or strain of blood, and in the Don he thinks he has a most worthy successor to that great stallion. Don d'Oro will be placed at the head of the stud and will be given every opportunity to make a name for himself. The well-bred mare Arnicia was secured from Mr. Belmont at the same time. She will be a worthy companion to Bandusia, one of the best matrons in the country, who is now located at Hazlewood farm."

"It is the intention of Mr. Morgan to go on the turf actively in a short time. He has been in touch with it for some time in a small way, but it is now his purpose to breed and race extensively. He has owned Blue Devil and run him in his name and colors for a couple of seasons, but this horse has been of such poor quality—he won one race this season—that Mr. Morgan has not considered him seriously. W. P. Barch trains Blue Devil and will undoubtedly have Mr. Morgan's new string of racers. Mr. Morgan is a member of the state racing committee."

Stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association met in New York Friday. The election of officers resulted:

President—August Belmont.
Vice-president—J. H. Alexandre.
Treasurer and honorary secretary—S. S. Howland.

Executive committee—W. C. Whitney, B. F. Clyde, R. C. Hooper, Dr. Green.

Licenses were granted to jockeys Veitch, Heider, Christopher, Ray, Melder, Finigan, Moxley, Southworth and Dayton. Veitch was licensed as a trainer also.

Amendments to the rules reported by the committee were adopted, the most important change being the dimensions of the jumps, as follows:

"Rule 3, section 6. In all steeplechase courses there shall be at least six fences in every mile. There shall be a water jump at least twelve feet wide and two feet deep, to be guarded by a fence not less than two feet in perpendicular height. There shall be in each course at least two jumps as follows: Ditch five feet wide and two feet deep, which shall be guarded on the taking-off side by a single rail, and on the landing side there shall be a fence of not less than four feet six inches in perpendicular height and of three feet in width."

The minimum perpendicular height of all other jumps shall not be less than four feet six inches and the minimum width three feet. The rails or board protecting a fence shall not be less than three feet in perpendicular height on the take-off side, except on the water jump."

A western stable that will begin the season with plenty of racing material is that of May & Son. There are twenty horses in the string of the Lexington turfmen being prepared for the season's campaign at Memphis. The older horses, all of which are well known performers, are Ed Tipton, 4; Jockey Joe, 4; Avenstake, 3; The Rush, 3; Tildy Ann, 3, and a maiden three-year-old filly. The two-year-olds are as follows: Otis Harlan, br. c, by Loyalist—Shadow; Joe Brill, b. c, by Macduff—Teresa; Luago, b. c, by Logic—Blue Stocking; The Auditor, ch. c, by Likely—Virginia Keene; Alex. Pearson, ch. c, by The Kaiser—Wanda West; Wolfmun, b. c, by Likely—Miss Vic; Hot Blast, ch. c, by Likely—Taberose; Port Wine, b. f, by Portland—Claret; Ep, b. f, by Likely—Miss Vixen; Ollie Redd, b. f, by Likely—Kitty Clover; The Elk, b. c, by Deceiver—Elsie B.; Bob Baker, gr. c, by King Cole—Alma B.

Captain May, who is sojourning in New Orleans, says that while their youngsters are as good looking a lot as they have ever had, they have only been taken up within the last month, and have not done enough with them to know much about them. He reports that Ed Tipton has grown and spread out finely. They have all along contemplated bringing him to New Orleans to go in the St. Patrick's Day Handicap, but the horse is doing so well that they have a bent decided to save him for Memphis and other meetings up the line. Avenstake and The Rush are both in the Crescent City Derby, and if they are doing well at the time they will be taken down to go in it. "Bud" May is in charge of the stable, and with his big string he is kept pretty busy.

The attention of owners is again called to the fact that next Tuesday is the last day on which entries can be made to the great array of stakes offered by the Westchester Racing Association and Washington Jockey Club, the names and conditions of which are fully set forth in the advertising department of this issue of DAILY RACING FORM. The Washington events will be decided at the initial meeting of the eastern campaign and should receive the patronage of western owners who design going east early in the season. Horses hardened by racing over the Benning track reap the advantage of their improved condition when they move north to the New York courses. As for the great stakes offered by the Westchester Association none offered in the east are of greater average value or popularity and the horse owner who intends to conduct racing over the metropolitan tracks would be simply foolish if he did not enter his horses in them. Entry blanks can be had at this office and entries mailed to clerk of the course Cricmore before midnight of Tuesday will be in time.

A dispatch from Chillicothe to the Enquirer says: "The fact that Imp, 'Uncle' Dan Harness' speedy mare, has been given top weight in both the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps, has not served to lessen the confidence of the mare's admirers in her ability to win both events. It was inevitable, of course, in view of her phenomenal performances of last year that she should have been given top weight; but she will go into training this season with an added strength and endurance which will enable her to carry even 128 pounds with ease. Those who have looked over the mare this winter are confident that her performances the coming season will be the greatest since she has been on the turf. She will go into training about the middle of next month and will be shipped east as soon as she is in proper form."

BRIGHTON HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

The Brighton Handicap is at the same distance and fully as important and valuable as the Brooklyn or Suburban. The entries are practically the same, among the few in the Brighton that are not in either the Brooklyn or Suburban being last year's premier two-year-old Meemerist. The weights assigned are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The case of Barney (Kid) Weller vs. Louis Ezell based on turf transactions and tried some time ago before Judge Gibbons and a jury was decided in favor of Weller yesterday and the court rendered judgment for $2,175 against Ezell.

Duke of Middleburgh, Arthur & Buckley's crack, has been laid up with a throat affection, which will keep him from facing the starter for some time to come.

St. Hubert, Chicago: Miss Gassie won the Canadian Derby at Fort Erie, Can., June 25, 1899; distance, 1-1-2 miles. Time, 2:39.

John Lang, Chicago.—Your parie wins on Bendoran.

Subscriber, Chicago.—No place odds on Alex.

BARNEY AND FELIX.

If Barney Schreiber's luck holds out a little while longer, he is likely to get back all the money he has lost the last few years. And there is none who would wish it otherwise.

There is no better known character on the turf than the good-natured, though at times irascible, Schreiber. When he wins he is smiles. When he loses there is gloom around his neighborhood. It used to be a case of "smiles" all the time. Then gloom got the upper hand; now "smiles" are predominant.

When Felix Carr was riding for him he couldn't lose. Now Felix is training for him and he is winning again.

Back in the days when Barney used to count out pins to purchasers, he was known for his honesty. He was never a pin "shy" to a customer. It was the same way when he began to race horses. Early in the game he bought a horse or two that could win. And whenever the could win they did win. Other owners began to see there was no use trying to tamper with Barney or his boy Felix. So they tampered with their own horses and bet on Barney's. As a result he won much oftener than he should have done. In other words, his horses were "shoved in." Barney always bet on his horses whether they had a chance to win or not. Sometimes they were at impossible prices. He made plenty of money.

Then Felix Carr grew too heavy to ride, and Barney's reverses began. He signed Jerry Chorn, one of the best all-around riders this country has ever seen. Barney thought he was as honest as Felix Carr, but he was mistaken. People told him Chorn was pulling horses.

"Get away," he'd say. "Jerry bet me $500 on that horse. Do you think he's going to pull one he bets on like that?"

But Chorn owed Barney the $500. He was getting his from Little Pete and his band of conspirators. When Chorn was ruled off he owed his employer nearly $10,000. Yet no one believes that Schreiber has ever been thoroughly convinced that Chorn was crooked.

He went from bad to worse. Last summer, at Saratoga and New York, he had a brief return of fortune, winning several races and some good bets. Then he sold Jinks for a good price to Mr. Whitney and bought Bannockburn and Fly By Night from Pat Danne for $5,000.

"He's crazy," everybody said. "What does he want with two broken-down horses? Any time Pat Danne lets one go you can gamble it is not much good."

But the croakers were wrong this time, at least in Bannockburn's case. That horse was never better in his life than now. He has taken up his entitled weight and twice run miles in 1:39, beating swell fields for valuable stakes. Enthusiastic people say he is the best horse in America. That is perhaps going a bit too far, though it would be puzzling to pick one to beat him.

Now horsemen and track followers, who are superstitious above everything else, are saying this is some more Schreiber luck brought to him by his mascot, Felix Carr. For Felix is training his horses now and has been winning races, too. Bullman, his jockey, is riding in great form, too, and everything is coming Schreiber's way. With a reasonable handicap, Bannockburn looks almost certain of winning the Burns stake.—San Francisco Examiner.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted.
The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
